

Scotiabank Toronto Waterfront Marathon

Michael Cohen

Back in the spring I emailed many of you indicating that I was going to raise money for something other than Walk Now for Autism. This year I am asking for your consideration to support a different organization... the Grandravine Tornadoes, a member club of Special Hockey International, and a wonderful organization that supports people with Autism, Down Syndrome and other Developmental and Global Delays and challenges. As a family we have been involved over the last two years (entering our 3rd), and have fully enjoyed our time (my son as a hockey player, and me as a coach/volunteer). It is so wonderful to participate in something like this - and I feel so fortunate that we are a part of it.

On October 19, I plan on running the Scotia Half Marathon and will fund-raise on behalf of the organization, which relies heavily on charitable support (See charitable number below) in order to operate. I have truly appreciated the support of my family and friends. No words can express my thanks to you all. If you would like to consider sponsoring us, I would be greatly appreciative. I know that we all have charities, foundations, etc. that are near and dear to our hearts, and we fund-raise for them. Therefore I completely understand that "you can't support everything". If you can support us, there are two options: PayPal (through the Grandravine website at www.grandravinetornadoes.org. or completion of this pledge form, and sending a cheque made out to Grandravine Special Program. Donations of $20 or more will receive a tax receipt (Canadian charity Reg. # 85830 5501 RR0001).
